INTRODUCTION TO USING
HEBREW THROUGH MOVEMENT WITH PRAYERS AND BLESSINGS

This unit is one of a series developed by the Jewish Education Center of Cleveland as a starting point for planning prayer and blessing lessons using Hebrew Through Movement. Indeed, the power of Hebrew Through Movement is in its ability to introduce and reinforce key vocabulary of Jewish prayers and rituals by using the foundational commands that have students walking, running, turning, and pointing. With HTM, students learn Hebrew by listening and reacting, and as a result, words and phrases stick in their heads much easier than when they attempt to memorize a list of words.

A few things to note:

• At the stage of language that Hebrew Through Movement operates, students will never fully be able to understand all the Hebrew words and phrases of a blessing or prayer. But they can be introduced to enough vocabulary so that the blessing begins to take on meaning.

• To work with the prayers and blessings, students need to have completed Foundational Level Five in the curriculum guide (available for free download from the home page of: HebrewThroughMovement.org). This level of learning provides the basic vocabulary to introduce and reinforce the complicated language of Hebrew prayers. Core commands that will be helpful include:

  - לקום get up
  - ללקחת את walk to
  - לפקוף את jump to
  - לצבוע את point to
  - לקחת take
  - לגעת ב touch
  - להרים את raise up
  - הוריד את lower
  - נישים על put (the)(a) ___ on

• Most of the time, HTM focuses on individual words, but at times an entire phrase is offered as the object of a command.

• Note that the JECC develops curriculum in response to the needs of local Cleveland congregations. After evaluation and revision during a pilot year, our materials are then shared nationally. The Hebrew Through Movement lessons are embedded into two JECC prayer curricula:
  - Lasim Lev (a focus on the Sh’mah and its Blessings, plus Kiddush)
  - Lakum...La’amod (a focus on the Amidah, plus V’ahavta)

1 Teachers gain the basic skills for working with Hebrew Through Movement through the 10 hour online-seminar offered by the Jewish Education Center of Cleveland: http://www.hebrewthroughmovement.org/online-seminar-registration.html
Both are available for free download from JECCMarketplace.com. If your program needs a specific prayer, blessing, or vocabulary that is not included, use the general template provided in these lessons to create your own.

This guide contains:
- Suggestions for the vocabulary a teacher might choose in working with a prayer or blessing
- Ideas for teaching each of the chosen vocabulary words
- Resource Sheets with pictures that will help with the teaching of concepts (print these in color, preferably on cardstock; lamination is optional)
- Explanations of when students may have learned specific vocabulary if your program uses Lasim Lev or Lakum...La’amod OR if your program has been teaching the prayers/blessings in the same order by which these guides are organized.

Three teaching tips:
- Teachers are welcome to introduce vocabulary from this guide in any order they wish BUT it is helpful to complement student learning with words that match the current focus of their t’fillah class. Thus, if you are a Hebrew Through Movement teaching specialist, be sure to stay in contact with the classroom teacher so you choose the most helpful vocabulary, weekly
- Remember to start each lesson with a review of past vocabulary. This review should contain words students have already learned that will assist in the rest of the lesson. For instance, if you know students will be touching objects (לָג ע ת ב) and picking them up (לְֹהָרִים אֵית), include those verb forms in the review.
- Anytime you complete a Hebrew Through Movement lesson based on a prayer, blessing or ritual, end your session by helping your students recite the actual blessing. This creates immediate and strong reinforcement between the vocabulary just learned and the actual prayer.
Make sure to recite or sing ישמוח after your HTM teaching session.

Vocabulary options for HTM are indicated in red:

This word means, “they will be happy” and is referring to those who celebrate Shabbat. Those using Lakum…La’amod will be cued into the singular version of this word that students might know:

• lakum lakham

Use the photos on pages 7-21 (below) that are labeled ישמוח. There are also photos that don’t show happy people. Students may respond with a thumb’s up or down when you ask: כן / לא - ישמוח.

Also use Foundational commands like:

This phrase means “people who guard (or keep) Shabbat.” The concept is introduced in Lakum…La’amod. Use the photos on pages 23-29 (below) and ask students to respond with a thumb’s up or down when you ask: כן / לא - שומורי שבת.

In the song, the chorus ends with the word קנב, קנב, but when singing, people combine it with the word שיבת. Thus, it becomes the phrase, קנב שיבת (or rejoicing in Shabbat). The phrase may be familiar to students as the name we give to the “refreshment and schmoozing” time after services on Friday night. This phrase is also part of the Lakum…La’amod lesson. Use the photos provided on pages 11 and 31-35.

Ask students to respond with a thumb’s up or down when you ask: כן / לא - קנב שיבת. You may also work with all the photos together by using foundational commands like:
