

Hebrew Through Movement Master Teacher Certification: Summer Seminar in Cleveland

Are YOU ready to take your next professional step?

Who are master teachers? Those who consistently use the learning principles of Hebrew Through Movement to plan and execute their lessons! This summer you will learn from experts, study and analyze videos, collaborate in the planning of lessons and practice your teaching skills. Master teachers will also learn to help support other teachers working with HTM.

When:

Sunday, July 14th, 12 noon through Tuesday, July 16th, 2:00 pm

Plus, approximately five hours of work to be completed at the start of the school year, including lesson planning and videotaping personal teaching.

Cost:

$350 (includes all meals and transportation between the JECC and hotel).

- Participants are responsible for transportation to Cleveland and their accommodations.
- The JECC will provide transportation from Hyatt Place, Lyndhurst (Legacy Village) and the seminar location at the beginning and end of each day. Information on making hotel room reservations is in the application link, below.

To apply for a space in this seminar, by June 1st, teachers need to:

- Have completed the online Hebrew Through Movement seminar and taught HTM for a minimum of two years.
- Submit a video of themselves teaching HTM, with attention to the learning principles.

No late applications will be accepted. Do NOT book air travel until accepted into the program.

Find the application and more information here: <https://tinyurl.com/HTMSummerCertification>

Questions? Be in contact with Nachama Skolnik Moskowitz – nmoskowitz@jecc.org 216-377-6003
Teach in Cleveland? Ask Nachama for YOUR conference flyer.